

We're creating community and connections for every Academic Leader at your school

13 unique Cohorts allow every Academic Leader to connect with peers who share your role

Department Leaders in Arts, English, Math, Science, Social Studies and Languages Department Leaders; Academic Deans and Deans of Faculty; Directors of Teaching and Learning; DEI Leaders in Curriculum and Pedagogy; Lower School Division Heads; Middle School Division Heads; and Upper School Division Heads

We're getting Academic Leaders the learning you need to lead

3500 Academic Leaders trust our weekly newsletter for relevant insights that impact the work you do each day

Academic Leaders report that our newsletter, "Meet the Moment" gets the strategic and pragmatic information they need in front of them, just when they need it most

We're building the skills that help your school thrive

Online courses provide you with research, expertise, and conversation about today's essential topics

Over 7 months, the Association offered 21 unique courses, with close to 400 total enrollments.

We launched the Association for Academic Leaders in July 2022 to provide community, resources, and learning for Academic Leaders in independent schools. We're the fastest growing organization the independent school community has ever seen. With you, and more than 120 other schools, we're building something big... and we're just getting started.

Take a look at how members are using the Association, and take your next steps to connect and learn as Academic Leaders.

We're talking about the topics you care about most

Our Resource Library hosts more than 175 articles and recordings, which have been viewed more than 4000 times.

Most Viewed Article:
Questions to Support Mentor-Mentee Conversations in Faculty Onboarding

Highest Participation Course: Preparing to Lead a Mission-Aligned Curriculum Audit

Most Viewed Webinar: Supporting Students by Building Trust with Parents & Guardians with Dr. Tori Cordiano